The Hise treaty has always been a hobby with our neighbor of the Democrat. It is yet, we see. "When Judge Hise, of this State." says our neighbor, "was Charge to Central America, be made a treaty with Nicaragua, in which we obtained all that we could desire. This treaty was presented to Mr. Clayton; but, as he was then engaged in making a treaty with Fingland, he laid aside this Hire treaty, and proceeded to negotiate with Bulwer, and proceeded to negotiate with the commonent annual coin in use far it starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent annual coin in use far its starts with the commonent not like our American gold dollar, which is too small and one by a young American erchnect, Mr

Case has also made a treaty, which is not yet ratified, owing to a dissent from one of its provisions en the part of Nizaragua. If ratified as made, it would only secure what the flies treaty secured, which was entirely neglected.

We congratulate our neighbor. Nothing, if we may believe him, but the ratification of the Case-Yrisarri treaty, an extremely probable event, by the way, stands between us and the full recovery of all those procious advantages which Mr. Clayton so madly peoparded in planting his official beel on the line treaty. The Hase treaty, that gem and pattern of diplomatic devernees, is, our neighbor assures us, and he knows everything about the Hise treaty, practically revived in the Case-Yrisarri treaty; the simplicity of Clayton is on the point of being retrieved by the acuteness of Cas; our half-forfeited rights in Central America are as good as redeemed; and the United States, as respects affairs generally in the Jshmus, is about 10 and the United States, as respects a failing generally 25, franci present French standard in the 1sthmus, is about to step from the ridiculous to the sublime. This is an interesting move, to be 3 dollar present landth standard 3 dollar proposed universit and the sublime. aure. Is it really about to be taken? Let us see.

When did we obtain in the Hise treaty? What was it? We will venture a handsome wager thei

We will venture a handsome wager that our neighbor of the Democrat can't tell. Our neighbor mest certainly doesn't know. We will inform him. The Hise treaty secured "to the United States, or to a company of the citizens thereof, the exclusive right and printings to make, construct, and build, within the territories of the State of Nicaragu, through and by the use and means of any of the streams, rivers, bays, harbors, lakes, or lands, unthrough and by the use and means of any of the streams, rivers, bays, harbors, lakes, or lands, unetreams, rivers, bays, harbors, lakes, or lands, under the jurisdiction or within the limits of said State, a consil or console, or road or roads, either rail-active or large-level or any other kind of road, for the same will not and the same weight now used in France, viz: 95 parts capper, 4 tin, 1 zinc, being, for the same value, about half the weight of the English half-penuy and the old American cost. Thus, according to this plan, the cherished national types of coins, the Napoleon, the surveying and the capter, the additional content of the United States should "decide not napoleon for the penuy, the center capper." comment of the United States should "decide not undertake and construct the sail works, then the President or Congress thereof" should have "the power and authority to frame, enact, and issue a charter or act of incorporation" for the purpose. It, moreover, solemaly engaged this ecuntry "to protect and defend the State of Nicaragus in the possession and exercise of the accountry, horte, lakes, rivers, and territories that may be rightfully under the jurisdiction and within coasts, ports, lakes, rivers, and territories that may be rightfully under the jurisdiction and within the just and true limits and boundaries of the said State; and when the circumstances and coadition of the country may require it, the United States shall emply their mayal and military force to preserve the peace and maintain the nentrality of the raid coasts, ports, lakes, rivers, and territories, and to hold and keep the same under the dominism and sovereignty of the government of such State of Nicaragus, or of the government of such State of the solid government of such States and the country may require it, the United to mmon language on each coin would be recognized at mount of education where it should go. Indeed, this plan, while it would go. Indeed, this plan, while it wo only in England. Dut it has coin should be to the new system that this coin should be political community of which Nicaragua may veligible to of silver if preferred; although the community of which of her own ntarily become a member, or with which, of her own coord, she may hereafter be identified." It also or the dailar ownd our government. "if the Sinte of Nicaragua 4 dullar piec should become involved in a war [not najast] with the retained in place of the 2 and a dala any foreign power or neighboring State within ber pieces, the pre-end double soversion. It is pieces, the pre-end double soversion. ber, or to recover such territories wrong-d from her." A trait of the control of agua in carrying on such war within her own right- and 2 franc p ly if he approves any one of them. Does our neighbor believe that the government of the United States has the constitutional power to construct a canal in Nicaragua? Why, he doesn't believe that it has the power to construct a canal within the national limits. Does our neighbor think that old coinage to the new, the either "the President or Congress" has the constitutional power to i-sue a charter of incorporation The old gold and silv for the purpose? Why, he denies the power of both together to create a corporation here at home.

Mint. ti thath together to create a corporation here at home. Does our neighbor consider the engagement to protect the sovereignty of Nicaragua against foreign as well as domestic foes a state-small ke or prudent stipulation? Why, he denounces even the Claytom-Balwer treaty, which simply engages us to protect the neutrality of the lathmian transit, as "an entangling alliance." We challenge our neighbor of the Democrat to say that he approves even the least unwarrantable or impolitio of these provisions of the Hise treaty. We dare him to say it. And these provisions are the soul and substance of the treaty, our neighbor's pet among all the offspring of American diplomacy.

Of course they are not to be found in the Casativate treaty; nor anything like them. The Casativate treaty contains no provision whatever for the construction of a canal or other means of intercocsnic communication, but merely stipulates that we shall have the right of transit on any route "which may now or herereafter exist or be construction or down to the construction dudger the authority of Nicaragua," and we shall have the right of transit on any route limited, one by the Fre "which may now or herereafter exist or be controlled and any now or herereafter exist or be controlled when the American Congress, to which may now or hererester exist or be constructed under the authority of Nicaragua," and binds us "to guarantee the neutrality of the same,"

engaging us, at the same time, however, to employ our influence with other nations to induce them to join us in such guarantee. In other words, the Case Friearri treaty is conceived in the spirit and in strict consistency with the letter of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. In its leading provisions, it no more resembles the Hise treaty than light resembles the three treaty than light resembles precisions of fire cor Bechman. On the Demodarkness. The two constitute a direct and bristling cratic side we have mention of Hunter, Wise, and carkiness. Inc. two constance a cirect and printing antithesis. The Case-Frienti treaty, in its principal features, is the nesteral ecquence of the policy adopted by our government in 1835—the complement or at least a supplement of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. The Hirse treaty is or was a monatrous and printing the supplement of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. The Hirse treaty is or was a monatrous and printing the supplement of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. The Hirse treaty is or was a monatrous and printing treaty is or was a monatrous and printing treaty in the printing treaty. Our neighbor of the Democrat may spare hie exultations. The Hise treaty is not about to live in any shape. What is still orn can know no resurrection.

Buchanan from the bead of the party by some solemn act of public consure? Mr. Buchanan is as deliberate and three times as great a political heretic as longiar is. Why degrade one and exalt the other? Why make fish of the toig heretic and fish of the little one? Why, Mr. Isoman? Your dectrine is good enough; we don't dispute it. But, why don't you carry it out?

The Cincinnati Times, which some time since nominated Mr. Crittenden for President and Mr. Mongouvery for Vice President, withdraw the latter because Bill English knocked him down the other day! From this it is evident that the Times expects its candidates to maintain their own standing, and does not promise itself to support them unless they can stand up against all attacks.
